P R O C E E D I N G S

CAROLE FAULKNER,
having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS:

Q. Please state your full name, for the record.

A. Carole Ann Faulkner.

Q. And you are one of the plaintiffs that has filed an opposition in this matter --

A. Yes.

Q. -- before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board?

A. Yes, I am.

Q. But this opposition was brought by you in your individual capacity and doing business as C I Host?

A. Correct.

Q. And this opposition is to the registration of Trademark Serial Number 85703135, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And is it your understanding that this is the trademark application filed by Gary Domel, individually, on August 14, 2012?

A. Yes, that's the one.

Q. So when we talk about Mr. Domel, we refer to him -- I can refer to him as either the applicant or the defendant in this case but you will understand either

1 one, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And when I refer to you or Chris Faulkner, you
4 guys will be the plaintiffs or the opposers?

5 A. All right.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. Yes, I can.

8 Q. What is the mark in question in this action?

9 A. C I Host.

10 Q. And the Applicant's registration, Mr. Domel's
11 registration, is it for a standard character mark?

12 A. Yes, it is.

13 Q. There's no design element, to your knowledge?

14 A. No. It's just the words.

15 Q. And the applicant's registration is under Class
16 42 for use in connection with -- and I'm just taking 17 this from the application, designing and implementing
18 web sites for others on the global computer information
19 network, hosting for web sites of others on a computer
20 server for a global computer network, graphic art
21 design, computer art design for others and computer
22 consultation.

23 Is that your understanding of what
24 Mr. Domel has applied for?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you as the Opposer filed a timely
2 opposition to the registration after it was published
3 for opposition in the official gazette, correct?

4 A. Yes, we did.

5 Q. And is it your understanding that in this
6 registration application Mr. Domel is claiming that he
7 is the owner of the C I Host mark, correct?

8 A. That's what he claims.

9 Q. You say that you do -- you say that you do
10 business as C I Host, in your opposition, correct?

11 A. Yes. We're do -- I am doing business as C I
12 Host.

13 Q. Is there also a corporate entity with this 14 name?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What is it?

17 A. C I Host, Inc., in Texas.

18 Q. What is your position in C I Host, Inc.?

19 A. I am the sole owner and then I am chairman of 20 the board. Or sole shareholder.

21 Q. And the chairman of the board?

22 A. Chairman of the board, yes.

23 Q. Are there any other officers?

24 A. Chris Faulkner is president and he sits on the 25 board.

1 Q. Okay. Where was C I Host formed?

2 A. C I Host --

3 Q. I said -- I'm sorry. Where was C I Host, Inc.
4 formed?

5 A. Okay. C I Host, Inc. was formed in Texas. And 6 we formed it is as a corporation in 1999.

7 (Exhibit No. 1 was marked.)

8 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Let me hand you what's 9 been marked as Exhibit 1. Do you recognize this
10 document?

11 A. Yes. This is the C I Host, Inc. Articles of 12 Incorporation and everything, where we filed it in Texas
13 in February 4, 1999.

14 Q. Okay. And is this a true and correct copy of 15 these Articles of Incorporation filed with the Secretary
16 of State?

17 A. Yes, they are.

18 Q. What is C I Host, Inc.'s principle place of 19 business?

20 A. The offices are at 4010 Ambleside Court in 21 Colleyville, Texas. My data center in -- on Sawtelle
22 Avenue in Los Angeles, California.

23 Q. What type of business is C I Host, Inc. engaged
24 in?

25 A. It is -- does web hosting for colocations,

1 dedicated servers. We do a little bit of share, not
2 really anymore because everything is going to virtual
3 machines. We do implementation and installation of the 4 software on the colocation machines and the dedicated
5 services as we need it. And are -- we have -- provide 6 technical support for the equipment.

7 We do web design and implementation, search
8 engine optimization. It's a lot broader now than it was 9 in 1999, on that last thing that you read. It's -- we
10 do web hosting for U.S. customers and international, I
11 have both. Let's see, web hosting -- creation of the 12 web sites and web designs. I covered the search engine.

13 I don't -- we don't do domain name
14 restoration anymore, any longer. We stopped that a
15 couple of years ago. That -- that is a broad umbrella
16 that we cover.

17 Q. Okay. Thank you. And at some point was 18 another corporation formed with the word C I Host?

19 A. Well, I have C I Host Corporation.

20 Q. When was this formed?

21 A. It was formed in 2000, in California. And then
22 formed in Texas in 2002.

23 (Exhibit No. 2 was marked.)

24 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Let me hand you what's
25 been marked as Exhibit 2. Do you recognize that

1 document?

2 A. This is the C I Host Corporation Articles that
3 was filed in 2002.

4 Q. In what state?

5 A. Texas.

6 Q. Is that a true and correct copy of these
7 Articles that were filed with the Secretary of State, of 8 Texas?

9 A. Yes.

10 (Exhibit No. 3 was marked.)

11 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Let me hand you what's
12 been marked as Exhibit 3. Do you recognize that
13 document?

14 A. Yes. This is C I Host Corporation that I filed
15 in 2000, October 2, 2000, for California.

16 Q. What was your position in C I Host Corporation?

17 A. I was one of the shareholders and I'm general
18 counsel and also was a vice president and general
19 counsel.

20 Q. What type of business was C I Host Corporation
21 engaged in?

22 A. It did some hosting, more web design at that 23 time. It was into the shared hosting and dedicated 24 servers. Starting out, we did not do any type of 25 colocations.

1 Q. Okay. So just to be clear, we have a C I Host,
2 Inc. and we have a C I Host Corporation?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. Can you give us an idea of, was there
5 any overlap or when -- when did C I Host Corporation
6 operate as opposed to C I Host, Inc.?

7 A. C I Host Corporation, we were doing business
8 starting in 2000 using C I Host Corporation. C I Host,
9 Inc. was still going on at that time. It was building a
10 larger data center.

11 C I Host Corporation was not as large as 12 C I Host, Inc. but we still was maintaining it. And we 13 were using C I Host Corporation in Texas since 2000, 14 even though it -- we didn't incorporate until 2002 in 15 Texas. We brought it -- we started using it in Texas
16 right away, In Oct -- in 2000.

17 Q. Now actually, C I Host did business as a sole
18 proprietorship or -- and/or partnership even before you
19 formed -- well, let me strike that.

20 Was C I Host doing business even before any 21 corporate entity was formed?

22 A. Of course. We started doing -- C I Host
23 started business in 1995.

24 Q. And please describe how C I Host first started
25 doing business in 1995 and what it did.

1 A. C I Host started out in '95, late '94. We
2 started doing web design, Chris did. And he was using
3 it as a -- doing web design and then hosting for his web
4 design customers.

5 Q. Let me interrupt you. When you say Chris, who 6 are you re --

7 A. Chris Faulkner.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Chris Faulkner was -- we were doing web design
10 and then started providing hosting services for the web
11 design customers. And the business was also in the same
12 offices as my law office. And I had a large suite. So
13 C I Host had two rooms in it and I had the other two.

14 Then I would run C I Host during the day
15 and then Christopher would come in about noon, 1:00
16 o'clock. And then he would take over and run the second 17 shift. And before that it started in an apartment when 18 he was in high -- in college. And it was sort of 19 reverse. I would go up at night and he would run it
20 during the day.

21 Q. Is it your contention that you and the other
22 opposer, Chris Faulkner, are the ones who have 23 continuously and exclusively utilized the C I Host mark
24 in commerce?

25 A. Yes, we have.

1 Q. In --

2 A. Since 1995 and we are using it today.

3 Q. In connection with web hosting and design
4 services?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. In a broad --

7 A. It is just much more extensive today.

8 Q. And you have been using this mark since 1995?

9 A. Continuously.

10 Q. Have you ever filed an application to register
11 the mark C I Host?

12 A. C I Host Corporation, I filed it in 2000.

13 Q. And do you remember when that mark was actually 14 registered?

15 A. It took a few years. So we registered in 2004.
16 But I filed for the trademark right after I incorporated
17 C I Host Corporation in California. And then a few
18 weeks later I filed for the trademark C I Host.

19 (Exhibit No. 4 was marked.)

20 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) I've handed you what has 21 been premarked as Exhibit 4. Do you recognize this 22 document?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What is it?

25 A. That's the C I Host trademark that we filed in

1 2000.

2 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of the record
3 of this prior registration as taken from the trademark
4 electronic search system?

5 A. Yes, it is.

6 Q. Now this registration was eventually cancelled,
7 correct?

8 A. Yes. Apparently there was some papers that 9 wasn't filed in 2011 and it cancelled.

10 Q. Who was the party who applied for and received
11 this trademark registration?

12 A. C I Host Corporation.

13 Q. Okay. Now as we have mentioned earlier, Gary
14 Domel filed an application on August 14, 2012, for this 15 same mark, correct?

16 A. Yes, he did.

17 Q. And that is the application that you are 18 opposing today?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Actually, you filed another -- you actually
21 filed another application, as well, for C I Host, less
22 than a month after Mr. Domel, correct?

23 A. That's when I found out that the mark had been 24 cancelled so I immediately filed for it again.

25 Q. And this was filed on September 19, 2012?

1 A. That is about right, yes.

2 Q. And it had Application Serial Number 857323 --
3 strike that.

4 85732638?

5 A. That sounds familiar. Yes, that is it.

6 (Exhibit No. 5 was marked.)

7 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Let me hand you
8 Exhibit 5. Do you recognize that document?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What is it?

11 A. This is the current C I Host filing for the 12 trademark. And it sets forth more of our goods and 13 services that we're doing today. It's a lot broader.

14 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of the record
15 of this current application, as taken from the trademark
16 electronic search system?

17 A. Yes. And this is the one that myself and 18 Christopher filed.

19 Q. Okay. So now you are saying that there are two 20 competing applications for registration of the mark
21 C I Host, correct?

22 A. Yes, at this time.

23 Q. Okay. Who are the applicants in this
24 application on Exhibit 5, that you are holding?

25 A. This one that -- this is my -- our mark. The

1 C I Host is -- this is a mark that has been filed by
2 myself, individually and doing business as C I Host.
3 And then Christopher Faulkner individually and doing
4 business as C I Host is the co applicant.

5 Q. You understand that, Gary Domel, by filing his 6 registration -- or filing his application for 7 registration of the mark C I Host, is claiming that he 8 is the rightful owner of this mark?

9 A. That's what he is claiming.

10 Q. Have you seen the trademark application filed
11 by Gary Domel?

12 A. Yes, I have.

13 Q. Okay. What in particular did you notice about 14 it, anything unusual, anything you could --

15 A. Well, there is not one true word on it except 16 for his name. I mean, he has lied throughout the 17 application. He had cop -- what he did was he copied 18 the application that we filed back in 1999. He used an 19 address that he's never resided at or never had an 20 office at. He has never been in hosting.

21 He wouldn't know how to be in hosting. He 22 is incompetent to run a hosting company because he 23 doesn't have the qualification. He has never used the 24 mark. He stated in the application that he has used the 25 mark since 1995. There is no way he's used that mark

1 since 1995.

2 I do regular searches. We maintain people
3 that search for the C I Host name, to make sure that no
4 one is using that mark. And if you Google it or you
5 search anything, if you come up with a mark C I Host,
6 you come with the name Faulkner. You don't come up with 7 Domel. He has never been and never used that mark and 8 he doesn't know how to use it.

9 Q. Okay. Do you know -- how well do you know Gary 10 Domel?

11 A. I have known him for years, or know of him.

12 Q. But based on the knowledge that you do have 13 about him and his activities, is it your opinion that he 14 has ever used this mark?

15 A. He never has.

16 Q. Based on your previous knowledge of Mr. Domel,
17 do you believe he has any intent of ever using this 18 mark?

19 A. No. No. He just -- he will never use the mark
20 C I Host.

21 Q. If Mr. Domel's application --

22 MS. THEISS: This calls for spec -- I'm 23 sorry to interrupt.

24 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: That's okay. Go ahead.

25 MS. THEISS: That calls speculation.

1 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) If Mr. Domel's
2 application is approved for registration, will your
3 business be -- how will your business be effected?

4 A. We are currently doing business as C I Host, as 5 we have for the past 20 years. And if he is awarded the 6 mark, it would cause -- if he ever actually used the 7 mark in commerce, that means he has to acquire the 8 knowledge to do a hosting company, he would cause a lot
9 of confusion in the marketplace.

10 Because then the public is going to wonder
11 why C I Host and Faulkners are not connected together in 12 the business as we have for the last 20 years and then
13 suddenly someone, Domel, that has never been even an 14 employee of C I Host is now having the mark. And 15 what -- and I own the domain, cihost.com.

16 Q. So will this likelihood of confusion cause any 17 damage to your business?

18 A. A lot.

19 Q. Have you built any goodwill into this C I Host
20 name?

21 A. Yes, we have.

22 Q. Can you just briefly elaborate on that?

23 A. We have done a lot of advertising. Christopher
24 has done a lot of articles and publications on internet
25 hosting. He's considered an expert in that industry.

1 We have sponsored NASCAR cars, world boxing matches. We
2 do internet banners and advertising. We -- I mean, it
3 is -- both ways, yes. It is internet hosting, everybody
4 has got it connected.

5 Q. Do you believe that there is value --

6 A. It --

7 Q. -- associated with the C I Host name?

8 THE REPORTER: Say that again. You're a
9 little too quick for me.

10 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: I apologize.

11 THE REPORTER: It's okay.

12 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Do you believe that 13 there is any value associated with the CI Host name?

14 A. Yes. We have taken the last 20 years to build
15 that company.

16 Q. What kind of service does the C I Host continue
17 to offer? You may have already touched on that but I
18 don't remember it.

19 A. Oh, well, we continue to offer -- we do the web
20 hosting for dedicated servers, colocations, using 21 virtual machines now. We do implementation and 22 installation of services. And we provide technical 23 support to those people that have the dedicated 24 equipment in our data center.

25 We do web design, search engine

1 optimization means taking their domain name and making
2 it where it is more valuable and putting it into the
3 search engines. And those types of services. It is a
4 lot broader now.

5 Q. Now since you began first using the mark in 6 1995, have you done any -- you said briefly you did some
7 advertising?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Can you briefly expand on what type of 10 advertising you did?

11 A. Oh, well, like I said, we have done -- we 12 sponsor NASCAR races and cars. We have done where we 13 have sponsored boxing matches, television advertising, a
14 lot of internet banners, articles, Christopher has done
15 a lot of articles and held himself out as an expert and 16 is a noted expert in the internet and hosting industry.

17 Q. Is there a web site for C I Host?

18 A. Yes. Ww.cihost.com.

19 Q. And has this web site been continuously
20 maintained?

21 A. Yes, it has.

22 Q. Who has been maintaining it?

23 A. I maintain it.

24 Q. Have you expended substantial funds, time or 25 en -- and/or energy to promote C I Host and its mark?

1 A. Christopher and I both have, throughout the
2 years. It's been there like 20 years.

3 Q. Do you believe that you are entitled to protect
4 this mark as a result of your continuous and exclusive
5 use of it?

6 A. Yes. And we do. I take steps. We
7 continuously look for anyone that is using that mark or
8 similar and we will go after them with cease and desist
9 and whatever is necessary for them to stop using the 10 mark C I Host.

11 Q. Have you received a cease and desist letter
12 from Mr. Domel?

13 A. No.

14 Q. You testified earlier that you reviewed the 15 trademark application of Mr. Domel, correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you stated that -- well, among many other 18 things, one thing you noticed was that it appeared to be 19 copied from your very own prior registration?

20 A. It's identical to it.

21 Q. And you mentioned something about an address
22 that was listed in the application?

23 A. He used the address 1851 Central Drive in his
24 application. That building, C I Host moved from that 25 building in 2009. It has been vacant up until 2000

1 and -- late 2012, 2013 is when they actually tore the
2 building down. But Mr. Domel has never had an office
3 there. It was exclusively a C I Host building and data
4 center.

5 Q. To the best of your knowledge, has Mr. Domel
6 ever provided any of the services that are listed under 7 the class stated in his application?

8 A. No. He has never provided any of those
9 services.

10 Q. And I think you touched on this earlier but
11 Mr. Domel's application was filed as a Section 1-A
12 application?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And that means that the mark was already being 15 used in commerce by him. Is that your understanding of 16 what a Section 1-A is?

17 A. Yes, it is. And the mark was being used but it
18 was being used by Christopher or myself, not by 19 Mr. Domel.

20 Q. So you believe that the statement that the mark
21 was being used in commerce by Mr. Domel was a false
22 statement?

23 A. Yes, it was. It was a false statement. He 24 stated that he had been using it since 1995 and he 25 hasn't been.

1 Q. What is Mr. Domel's only relationship to your
2 company or primary relationship to your company?

3 A. He was a creditor, he loaned them money back in 4 1999.

5 Q. Has he ever been in privy with C I Host?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Has he ever done business as C I Host?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Let's touch on this creditor issue.
10 C I -- who was lent money? Mr. Domel personally lent
11 money to C I Host?

12 A. Mr. Domel -- Mr. and Mrs. Domel -- Domel lent
13 money to C I Host, Inc.

14 Q. And -- and there was a -- was there an 15 agreement signed?

16 A. There was a -- yes. A promissory agreement and 17 a security agreement between C I Host, Inc. and the 18 Domels.

19 Q. I know there is a long history of underlying 20 ligation but Domel basically, he -- did he allege that 21 there was a default of this note somehow?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And then he purported -- and I'm taking this
24 from his answer to this case, he purported to foreclose
25 on some type of perceived security interest on the

1 C I Host mark?

2 A. That's --

3 Q. To your understanding?

4 A. That's what he said he did.

5 Q. Now all this was done in the -- in Travis
6 County litigation, or is that where this underlying 7 settlement agreement and note and secured agreement are 8 in connection with?

9 A. Yes, that was.

10 MS. THEISS: Objection; mischaracterizes
11 the facts, compound.

12 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Got it.

13 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) That -- now this
14 settlement agreement, who were the parties to it?

15 A. Mr. and Mrs. Domel and C I Host, Inc.

16 Q. You mentioned Mrs. Domel, is she --

17 A. Kimberly.

18 Q. Kimberly --

19 A. Kim, Kimberly Domel. I'm not sure.

20 Q. Do you recall the security agreement?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you remember approximately when it was 23 signed or dated?

24 A. Fall of 2 -- of 1999, Christopher signed it.

25 Q. What did it state as far as what the secured

1 collateral was; do you remember?

2 A. The collateral was accounts receivable,
3 equipment, inventory, intellectual property, machinery.
4 It was very -- it was broad, it was just very general.

5 Q. Boilerplate, in a sense?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Was the C I Host -- was there a specific
8 addressing of the -- of a C I Host trademark?

9 A. There wasn't a C I Host trademark at that time.

10 Q. Was there any intent that the C -- that a
11 C I Host mark would be part of the security agreement?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Was there any reference to the goodwill of 14 C I Host as being part of any secured collateral?

15 A. No way.

16 Q. Let's assume that there was an intent to 17 include an actual trademark as part of the security
18 collateral, which you are saying there wasn't?

19 A. There wasn't no trademark at that time.

20 Q. Would it have been your intent to transfer or 21 include the accompanying goodwill along with it?

22 A. No. No. That's something we built.

23 Q. You testified earlier that the C I Host mark
24 was actually registered by C I Host Corporation,
25 correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And that application was filed in 2000,
3 correct?

4 A. Correct. The corporation was started in 2000
5 then we filed for the trademark right at that same time
6 and then we filed and brought C I Host Corporation into 7 Texas, as an entity, not just a D/B/A, in 2002.

8 Q. So at the time of the security agreement there
9 was no actual trademark registration or pending
10 registration, was there?

11 A. No, there wasn't, not at that time. That all
12 happened before.

13 Q. So any reference to intellectual property in 14 the security agreement was general in nature?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. They didn't spe -- did not specifically refer
17 to any registered mark?

18 A. No, because there wasn't one.

19 Q. Okay. So this 2000 application, Carole, that 20 you filed, ultimately resulted in a registration four 21 years later, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you understand, by Mr. Domel's response of 24 pleading in this case, that he is claiming he is the 25 owner of this mark by virtue of -- simply by virtue of a

1 security interest foreclosure on August 20, 2008; is
2 that your understanding?

3 A. That's my understanding.

4 Q. So at the time of this purported foreclosure by 5 Mr. Domel, the C I Host trademark registration was still 6 in effect and owned by C I Host Corporation?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. What is the significance of that?

9 A. C I Host, Inc. is the one that did business
10 with Domel. And they're the ones that received the 11 money, they are the ones that did the security
12 agreement. C I Host Corporation was a totally separate
13 entity and it is the one that held the trademark.
14 C I Host Inc. never held a trademark.

15 Q. Okay. So to the extent C I Host Inc. ever used
16 the mark, how do you explain that?

17 A. C I Host Corporation gave them permission to do
18 it. We never complained.

19 Q. As far as this foreclosure, do you believe
20 the -- do you believe there was a valid foreclosure?

21 A. No, there wasn't.

22 Q. And again, I'm asking that question assuming,
23 just assuming, that the mark in question was covered,
24 which you claim it is not. But let's just take it in 25 the foreclosure.

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. Did you --

3 A. Pretend that they had it -- pretend that C I
4 Host, Inc. owned it and that Domel had an interest in 5 it? Just pretend.

6 Q. No, no. That -- I asked a bad question. Let's 7 just --

8 A. It was just --

9 Q. Let -- just isolating the foreclosure argument, 10 without any --

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. -- without respect to the validity of the 13 security agreement and the inclusion of the collateral.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. Do you believe that there was a valid
16 foreclosure?

17 A. No, there wasn't.

18 Q. What do you know about the notice of this
19 foreclosure? I mean, did -- who received notice? Did
20 you receive notice?

21 A. No, I did not receive notice. There was no
22 judicial court order, there was nothing. Nothing.

23 Q. Do you recall, in the Travis County lawsuit,
24 whether Mr. Domel requested a judicial foreclosure of 25 the security interest?

1 A. He did at the beginning in the original
2 petition but never anything after that did it come up.

3 Q. Do you ever recall a court judgement declaring
4 the availability of a judicial foreclosure?

5 A. There wasn't one. There isn't today.

6 Q. Did you ever read the deposition transcript of 7 Gary Domel that I took several months ago?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Well, do you recall if -- okay.

10 A. I'm sorry.

11 Q. That's okay. Had you received the notice of 12 this foreclosure, would you have objected to it in 13 accordance with Texas law?

14 A. Yes, of course.

15 Q. Has there ever been an assignment of any rights
16 to the C I Host mark to Gary Domel?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Has there ever been any type of lease-backed 19 agreement between you -- between you as the opposer and 20 Gary Domel, for use of this mark?

21 A. No. There has been -- and nothing between 22 Chris and Domel, on the -- there has been no type of 23 assignment or lease back.

24 Q. Has Gary Domel ever acted consistently with the 25 belief that he is now or ever owned the C I Host mark?

1 A. Not until this.

2 Q. Is there significant goodwill attached to the
3 C I Host mark?

4 A. Yes, there is.

5 Q. Has C I Host ever relinquished or transferred 6 this goodwill to anyone?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Or otherwise given anyone else the rights to 9 use this goodwill?

10 A. No. We allowed C I Host, Inc. to continue to 11 use the mark and that is because Christopher was CEO of 12 C I Host, Inc.

13 THE REPORTER: Wait, say that again,
14 Christopher what?

15 THE WITNESS: Christopher Faulkner was CEO
16 of C I Host, Inc.

17 A. And asked for permission to use that mark and 18 it was allowed.

19 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) You may have touched on 20 this earlier but should Mr. Domel's trademark
21 application be granted, will there be a likelihood of 22 confusion between Mr. Domel's use of that mark, assuming 23 he uses it, and your business?

24 A. Yes. Because I own the web site, CIHost.com
25 and have since the earlier '90s, either Christopher or

1 myself. And we've given C I Host, Inc. permission to
2 use it at times. And we have given C I Host Corporation
3 permission to use it at times for our ownership has 4 never changed.

5 Q. Why do you believe that Mr. Domel is trying to 6 register this mark?

7 A. Because he loves harassing Christopher and 8 myself.

9 MS. THEISS: Objection; calls for
10 speculation.

11 THE WITNESS: Okay.

12 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Okay.

13 THE WITNESS: And that one doesn't call for
14 speculation.

15 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: No, that's okay.
16 Objection noted.

17 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Do you believe that you
18 own a superior right to the trademark C I Host for any 19 usage of the mark in commerce since 1995?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. Will you suffer irreparable damage should 22 Mr. Domel be allowed to register this mark in his name?

23 A. Yes. Because I have an ongoing business right
24 now, today.

25 Q. Okay. I would like to just briefly go over

1 through some exhibits that you believe support your
2 position.

3 (Exhibit No. 6 was marked.)

4 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Let me show you
5 Exhibit 6. Do you recognize this?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What is this?

8 A. This is the domain registration and it is 9 this -- demonstrating the ownership of CIHost.com.

10 Q. This is from GoDaddy.com?

11 A. Yes. And they're one of the registrars.

12 Q. Is there like a range of dates here?

13 A. Yes. It was -- it expires April 26, 2014. It
14 was updated March 04, '13. April 25, '97 was when it
15 was created. It shows the domain controls. Those are 16 the domain name, NS75 domain controls dot com. Those 17 are GoDaddy's domains. And then it shows that the named 18 servers we're using is NS propagation net, which is our 19 servers.

20 That's the name of the servers that the 21 data comes through, the initial ones. And it was 22 updated in March 2, 2010.

23 Q. And is this a true and correct copy of this
24 printout from GoDaddy?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 Q. Who does it show to be the registrar?

2 A. That's myself, C.A. Faulkner.

3 Q. Okay.

4 (Exhibit No. 7 was marked.)

5 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Let me show you

6 Exhibit 7. Do you recognize that document?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What is that?

9 A. This is the C I Host web site. And it shows
10 that C I Host has a copyright to these materials. And 11 this was back in 1998. It was copyrighted and we have 12 basically used this web site dated from '95 to 2005.

13 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of the C I Host
14 web page that you maintained?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. During those years. And it shows all the 18 copyright notices throughout the years 2007. And it
19 stopped -- at that point in time we got it where it was 20 copyrighted, that materials from C I Host. It does not 21 specify it was C I Host, Inc. It is C I Host.

22 (Exhibit No. 8 was marked.)

23 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) I have handed you what
24 has been marked as Exhibit 8.

25 A. Oh, yes.

1 Q. Do you recognize this collection of documents?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. What are these?

4 A. These are some of the press releases that we
5 did back in -- this is 2006 on this one. 2008, 2007,
6 and it is all press releases talking about C I Host is a
7 global leader in the web hosting and development,
8 software development. We also did -- we still do
9 software development.

10 Q. Are these true and correct copies of these 11 press releases and articles?

12 A. Yes, they are. This is when we opened the new 13 data center in 2008. And the one that -- where we was 14 opening it in 2009, where we were doubling in space.
15 And that's when we went into 1851.

16 Q. And that's the Bedford address?

17 A. I'm sorry, went in that one in 1999. But 2009
18 is when we moved down to John Carpenter Freeway, C I
19 Host did.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. Into a larger space. These are all up to 22 current, different things throughout the years that we 23 did to promote C I Host. And that Christopher did to 24 promote C I Host.

25 Q. Okay.

1 (Exhibit No. 9 was marked.)

2 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) I'll hand you Exhibit 9.
3 Do you recognize that document?

4 A. Yes. I filed it.

5 Q. What is it?

6 A. It is the D/B/A for C I Host. And this was 7 done in 2000.

8 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of the Assumed
9 Name Certificate?

10 A. Yes, it is.

11 (Exhibit No. 10 was marked.)

12 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) And finally, let me show
13 you Exhibit 10.

14 A. This is just a franchise tax report for C I
15 Host, Inc. that was part of some corporate documents --

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. -- that shows we were at 1901 Central Drive.

18 Q. Is this a true and correct of this franchise
19 information report?

20 A. Yes, it is.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. And it is signed by Christopher Faulkner. And 23 this is for C I Host, Inc. And it shows that the 24 principle place of business is 1851 Central Drive. That
25 was the data center at that time. And then the 1901

1 Central Drive, that was showing the principle office, is
2 where the offices actually were located, that was across
3 the street. And that's what this report is showing.

4 And the 2809 Tower Street, that's a
5 registered address for C I Host, Inc.

6 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Can we take a quick
7 break?

8 MS. THEISS: (Moving head up and down.)

9 (Break taken from 10:37 a.m. to 10:55 a.m.)

10 (Exhibit No. 11 was marked.)

11 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) Carole, let me hand you
12 what's marked as Exhibit 11. Do you recognize that 13 document?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What is that?

16 A. This is the home page for CIHost.com and it was 17 last year and it is probably real similar to what it is 18 right now. I made some changes over the last year but 19 it was a 2013.

20 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of this web
21 site printout?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Is there a copyright logo on the bottom?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Who copy -- who is that? Who copyrighted that?

1 A. Oh, yeah, I -- it is copyrighted to me.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. 2013, C.A. Faulkner.

4 (Exhibit No. 12 was marked.)

5 Q. (BY MR. NIKOLOPOULOS) And let me hand you
6 Exhibit 12. Do you recognize that document?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What is that?

9 A. That is the ICANN registration accreditation
10 agreement between C I Host, Inc. and ICANN.

11 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of this 12 accreditation agreement?

13 A. This is the front page, yes.

14 Q. And what is that? What is an IVAN that 15 register accreditation agreement?

16 A. It is to register domain names for the 17 internet, domain names, WWW domain dot net, dot com.

18 Q. Okay. Okay. For these last -- for Exhibit 6
19 through 12 that we just went through, are these the 20 business records of C I Host?

21 A. Oh, yes.

22 Q. Are you a custodian of records for C I Host?

23 A. Yes, I am.

24 Q. Were these records made at or near the time by 25 someone with knowledge of the record?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And were these records kept in the course of a
3 regularly-conducted activity of C I Host?

4 A. Yes. And it's for C I Host, Inc. and C I Host
5 Corporation document, so.

6 Q. Was the making of these records the regular
7 practice of C I Host?

8 A. Yes, they were.

9 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: I'll pass the witness.

10 EXAMINATION

11 BY MS. THEISS:

12 Q. Ms. Faulkner, my name is Dawn Theiss and I
13 represent Gary Domel. So I believe you testified that 14 you are an owner or officer of two entities; is that 15 right? C I Host Corporation; is that correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And C I Host, Inc.?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Where is C I Host Corporation incorporated?

20 A. It was in California and I found out that it
21 has -- it is not a valid corporation.

22 Q. And what do you mean by that?

23 A. It was -- we didn't file the paperwork in 2009
24 for a franchise and we just haven't brought it -- I
25 still operate just as C I Host.

1 Q. So it was originally incorporated in
2 California?

3 A. Yes, in 2000.

4 Q. C I --

5 A. C I Host Corporation.

6 Q. -- Corporation?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And then that is the document that you-all
9 introduced as Exhibit 3?

10 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Sounds right.

11 A. Yes. C I Host Corporation is Exhibit 3, those 12 are the California --

13 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) And then Exhibit 2 is a 2002
14 Articles of Incorporation of C I Host Corporation, which 15 is filed in Texas?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So are these two separate corporations?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. So there's two -- there's a Texas entity --

20 A. And then -- and a California.

21 Q. -- named C I Host Corporation?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And there's a California entity named C I Host
24 Corporation?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And the California entity, you said, I think,
2 their registration is now lapsed?

3 A. Both of them have. I have not kept C I Host
4 Corporation going.

5 Q. C I Host Corporation in Texas has also lapsed?

6 A. Just recently, yes.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. I have got to file the franchise report.

9 Q. Which of -- was it the Texas corporation or the 10 California corporation that you claim owns the -- owned
11 the C I Host trademark?

12 A. It is the California corporation.

13 Q. So there's also C I Host, Inc., which was 14 incorporated in --

15 A. 1999.

16 Q. -- '99. And that was the entity that was the 17 borrower on a loan from Mr. and Mrs. Domel; is that 18 right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that was also the transaction in which 21 there was a security agreement executed; is that right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then so it was C I Host that gave a
24 security interest in some -- some property that it owes
25 to Mr. and Mrs. Domel in connection with the loan?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the -- I'm assuming then, did you execute a
3 security agreement on behalf of C I Host, Inc.?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Who was it that signed that security agreement?

6 A. Christopher --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- Faulkner.

9 Q. And are you familiar -- you are familiar with 10 that document, I believe, because you testified about it
11 earlier?

12 A. Yes, I am.

13 Q. And wouldn't you agree that the terms of the 14 security agreement control what the actual security is 15 for that loan?

16 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: I'll object to the form.

17 A. I be -- I be -- what you are saying, I believe,
18 that the document controls, yes.

19 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) So in 1999, C I Host, Inc. was 20 the only entity that was operating as C I Host; isn't 21 that right?

22 A. In Texas, yes.

23 Q. And so it is your position that there was a
24 California entity operating as C I Host, that's
25 unincorporated?

1 A. C I Host, yes, Corporation.

2 Q. And then what was C I Host Corporation, that
3 was not incorporated, what was it doing in California in 4 1999?

5 A. It was also doing it in Texas, was it had some
6 servers and doing some web design, generally the same
7 but a little bit different.

8 Q. Generally, the same but little bit different 9 than what?

10 A. Than C I Host, Inc.

11 Q. So in 1999 C I Host, Inc, was an incorporated
12 Texas entity that was --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- doing business in web hosting and web
15 design?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you were also operating an unincorporated
18 California entity doing basically the same thing and 19 that entity was operating in Texas at the same time?

20 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: I'm going to object to 21 mischaracterizing.

22 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

23 A. Yeah. No.

24 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) Yeah, let me -- that was a
25 terrible question. Let me ask that again.

1 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: I guess, when you say
2 unincorporated, I think -- I think the document shows it
3 was incorporated. Maybe she said afterwards it was --
4 it lost its status. Is that what you mean by
5 unincorporated?

6 MS. THEISS: Well, I think she said that 7 C I Host Corporation in California was incorporated in 8 2000.

9 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) Right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) But you also testified that 12 prior to 2000 you were operating C I Host Corporation?

13 A. Corporation. Yes. Until it --

14 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Sorry. I misunderstood.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) Right?

17 A. Until it -- until we got it incorporated, yes.

18 Q. And that prior to 2000 it is your position that 19 C I Host Corporation was operating in both Texas and 20 California?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. But it had not yet been incorporated?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And also prior to 2000 then, C I Host, Inc. and 25 C I Host Corporation were doing basically the same thing

1 in Texas; is that right?

2 A. There was differences.

3 Q. Okay. What were those differences?

4 A. Well, C I Host, Inc. was a lot larger. And 5 they had the staff of employees more. They were 6 involved more in the hosting of shared servers at that
7 time and was just building and expanding their data
8 center.

9 Q. And then what was C I Host Corporation doing?

10 A. Web design, some servers on more of a dedicated 11 basis, which was just starting. And they were out of 12 mostly Wilshire Boulevard, in California.

13 Q. So C I Host Corporation, prior to 2000, was 14 operating off of an address on Wilshire Boulevard in 15 California?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And where was C I Host, Inc. operating out of?

18 A. Central Drive in Bedford. Now we're talking
19 about 2000, right?

20 Q. Prior to 2000.

21 A. Oh, well, prior to 2000, in 1999 they were on 22 Bedford Road. Prior to the middle of 1999 they were on 23 Harwood Road, in Bedford.

24 Q. So in 1999 both entities were using the name
25 C I Host; is that right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And when C I Host Corporation filed the
3 application that is Exhibit 5, I believe, was that based 4 only on -- I'm sorry. Hold on. I may have referred to 5 the wrong application. Let me ask that question over so
6 I don't confuse anyone.

7 It's Exhibit 4, was the original
8 application?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Do you have Exhibit 4 in front of you?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. So this is C I Host Corporation?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And I believe you said this was the California
15 entity that filed this application; is that right?

16 A. That's the only C I Host Corporation we had.

17 Q. At this --

18 A. At that time.

19 Q. -- right, in 2000?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And then was this -- this was based then
22 only on C I Host Corporation's use of the trademark?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And at what point did C I Host start letting 25 C I Host, Inc. use the trademark?

1 A. We allowed them to use it right away.

2 Q. So even before C I Host Corporation was
3 incorporated or?

4 A. Yes. We had -- on the Texas Corporation they
5 had -- we had asked, yes, we gave them permission to use
6 C I Host.

7 Q. Was there any writing that evidenced C I Host,
8 Inc.'s, I guess, license to use the trademark?

9 A. I don't know if we actually did it in format.
10 You have to understand, since 1995, Christopher, Chris
11 Faulkner and/or myself, we've always used the C I Host
12 trademark or the name C I Host. And then we would do
13 the C I Host Corporation. We would incorporate and we 14 would allow that corporation to use the name.

15 And the same way as the C I Host, Inc.
16 This is -- the C I Host Corporation owned it, we filed
17 it under that trademark, for that trademark. Then
18 C I Host Corporation allowed C I Host, Inc. thereafter
19 to use the name.

20 Q. So C I Host, Inc. --

21 A. But it was under -- it was -- I'm sorry.

22 Q. No, that was my fault.

23 A. It was -- it was a simultaneous use, means it
24 wasn't an exclusive use.

25 Q. So C I Host Corporation, the California entity

1 was the owner of the C I Host trademark?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And C I Host Corporation, the Texas entity, was 4 also using the C I Host trademark?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And C I Host, Inc., the Texas Corporation, was 7 also using the Texas trademark?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I'm sorry. The C I Host trademark?

10 A. Yes. That was owned by C I Host Corporation.

11 Q. So was anybody else using the C I Host
12 trademark, starting in 2000?

13 A. Besides Chris and myself, no.

14 Q. So were --

15 A. We controlled it.

16 Q. You-all controlled C I Host Corporation?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Both the Texas and the California entities, I'm 19 assuming?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you also controlled C I Host, Inc., the 22 Texas entity?

23 A. He was the CEO, yes, of the organization.

24 Q. And so you were -- were the three entities, the 25 three C I Host entities that were utilizing the C I Host

1 trademark, right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Were -- you guys weren't personally, outside of 4 those entities, using the C I Host trademark, were you?

5 A. The way Chris did some of the interviews, he
6 was promoting the name C I Host. But most of the time
7 it was with C I Host, Inc. It --

8 Q. It was on behalf of the entities, C I Host?

9 A. Of C I Host, Inc.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Yes. But C I Host Corporation continued to do
12 advertising using the mark. And search engine
13 optimization, all of that was done with the C I Host
14 Corporation and that's what we're still using it as.

15 Q. So Mr. Faulkner was -- in using the mark, he 16 was acting on behalf of either C I Host, Inc. or 17 C I Host Corporation, one of the two entities with that 18 name?

19 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Object to the form,
20 speculation.

21 A. I don't know really how to answer that the way
22 that you phrased it. I'm sorry.

23 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) So was Mr. Faulkner using the 24 C I Host trademark on behalf of his own individual
25 capacity or was he using it on behalf of C I Host, Inc.

1 or C I Host Corporation?

2 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Same objection.

3 A. We both would use it in our individual
4 capacities, also as the D/B/As.

5 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) So then what you said before in 6 that there were three entities operating as C I Host and 7 now you are also saying that you and your son were also
8 doing business as C I Host, as individuals?

9 A. We had Assumed Named Certificates for C I Host.

10 Q. In your individual capacity?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And when did you file the Assumed Name
13 Certificate?

14 A. I'm not for sure.

15 Q. Approximately, was it like 2000?

16 A. 1995.

17 Q. So in 1995 Carole Faulkner, individually, filed
18 an Assumed Name Certificate as C I Host?

19 A. Probably Chris -- I think it was more like
20 Christopher -- Carole Faulkner filed on behalf of her
21 and Chris Faulkner. '95, '96, in through that period.

22 Q. So out of the three entities that we've talked
23 about, C I Host Corporation in California, and C I Host 24 Corporation in Texas, and C I Host, Inc., which of the 25 three are still operating?

1 A. C I Host, Inc. in Texas is operating and
2 C I Host Corporation in California has been forfeited so
3 I need to file the paperwork for both of those and bring
4 them back.

5 Q. C I Host Corporation in California?

6 A. Uh-huh. But I'm doing more with C I Host, Inc.

7 Q. So C --

8 A. I'm the sole shareholder of both Corporations.

9 Q. C I Host Corporation in California?

10 A. And C I Host, Inc.

11 Q. What about C I Host Corporation in Texas?

12 A. No.

13 Q. That one is no longer operating?

14 A. No.

15 Q. And so when did C I Host Corporation in Texas
16 stop doing business?

17 A. I'm not for sure on that exact date.

18 Q. Was it since 2008?

19 A. For the Texas corporation, I believe so. I'm 20 not sure of the date.

21 Q. So the California corporation, C I Host
22 Corporation, is currently still doing business but 23 primarily you are doing business --

24 A. As C I Host, Inc.

25 Q. And what -- how many employees does C I Host

1 have?

2 A. I don't use employees.

3 Q. Do you have any independent contractors that 4 you use?

5 A. I use independent contractors, vendors.

6 Q. How -- vendors?

7 A. And independent contractors.

8 Q. And then --

9 A. I contract by vendors.

10 Q. What -- who are these vendors? What kind of 11 vendors are they?

12 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: I'll object to the 13 relevance.

14 A. I'm not telling you the -- my list of 15 contractors that I utilize. Those are all trade
16 secrets.

17 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) So approximately how many 18 vendors do you utilize?

19 A. I'm not for sure.

20 Q. Is it more than ten?

21 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Object to the relevance.

22 MS. THEISS: I'm just trying to get a feel 23 for --

24 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: No, I know, but --

25 MS. THEISS: -- the level of the business

1 operation.

2 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: -- because it is a
3 testimony deposition, I think I have to be evidentiary
4 with you.

5 MS. THEISS: Oh, that's -- yeah, that's
6 fine.

7 A. I'm not sure.

8 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) So currently, are you an
9 employee of C I Host, Inc.?

10 A. I am sole shareholder and chairman of the 11 board.

12 Q. And is Mr. Chris Faulkner an employee?

13 A. He is the CEO, president of C I Host, Inc.

14 Q. So both --

15 A. And he sits on the board.

16 Q. You are both involved in the operations of 17 C I Host, Inc.?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And is there --

20 A. More than -- me, more myself.

21 Q. Is there anyone else that's involved in the 22 business operations of C I Host, Inc.?

23 A. The people that I maintain, that I hire to do
24 specific jobs and projects.

25 Q. And -- okay. How -- approximately, how many

1 people do you hire on a monthly basis to do specific
2 jobs and projects?

3 A. It just varies on how busy it is and what comes
4 in.

5 Q. So year to date, approximately, how many people
6 have you hired to do specific jobs and projects?

7 A. I am not telling you my business.

8 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Object to relevance.

9 A. I am not telling you any of my trade secrets or
10 business.

11 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) So is it your position that 12 approximately how many people you have hired this year
13 is a trade secret?

14 A. It is for Domel, yes. I'm not giving him
15 information about my business.

16 Q. So you are refusing to answer that question?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Can you tell me whether you hired more than 19 five people this year to do any business or projects on 20 behalf of C I Host, Inc.?

21 A. I --

22 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Objection; asked and
23 answered, irrelevant.

24 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) Are you refusing to answer that 25 question?

1 A. I think I have already answered it, several
2 times.

3 Q. C I Host, Inc., what is the annual revenue for
4 C I Host?

5 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Objection; relevance.

6 A. I'm not for sure.

7 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) And who would be somebody that
8 would be able to answer that question?

9 A. Someone that I would employ or retain.

10 Q. You previously said C I Host doesn't have any 11 employees.

12 A. I retain. I use contractors.

13 Q. Do you use a contractor to do the accounting
14 for C I Host, Inc.?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And who is the accountant that you hire to do
17 the accounting for C I Host, Inc.?

18 A. I don't recall at this time.

19 Q. Is that something that Mr. Faulkner would know?

20 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Objection; form.

21 A. I don't know what his knowledge is.

22 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) Are there any other -- I think
23 you said you're president of the board of C I Host,
24 Inc.; is that right?

25 A. No. I said I'm chairman of the board.

1 Q. Chairman of the board. And are there any other
2 board members, other than you and Mr. Faulkner?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And so as you sit here, you can't tell me what
5 the annual revenue is for the year 2013, for C I Host,
6 Inc.?

7 MR. NIKOLOPOULOS: Objection; asked and
8 answered, irrelevant.

9 Q. (BY MS. THEISS) Okay. I'll ask you to look at 10 Exhibit 12, please. And this is, I think you said, a
11 registrar accreditation agreement filed --

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. -- is it, I guess it is not filed. It is just 14 entered into by C I Host, Inc.?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And so what -- what does this agreement govern?

17 A. To register the domain name of third parties.

18 Q. And so is that the business of C I Host, Inc., 19 currently?

20 A. No.

21 Q. So what -- what's the purpose of this
22 agreement?

23 A. It was -- we were in that business for probably
24 eight to ten years. And we just recently have stopped
25 registering domain names.

1 Q. So the -- this was, I guess, was a December 8,
2 2011, agreement?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And so is this agreement no longer in force, if
5 you are not doing the specifics anymore?

6 A. I don't know if it is in force or I just know
7 that we have -- it was a business decision to stop.

8 Q. So --

9 A. Doing domain name registration. There
10 wasn't -- it has gotten too cheap.

11 Q. So the domain name registration is too cheap?

12 A. Yes. With GoDaddy and doing the volumes, it is 13 too inexpensive.

14 Q. Does C I Host Corporation, out of California,
15 do they do any registration of domain names?

16 A. Not recently. That's -- we've gotten away from 17 that.

18 Q. So when was it that C I Host, Inc. stopped?

19 A. I don't know the exact date.

20 Q. Was it, I guess, after December 2011, I'm 21 assuming?

22 A. Oh, yes.

23 Q. And then what about C I Host Corporation, when 24 did they stop doing domain name registration?

25 A. They would have done it approximately at the

1 same time.

2 Q. Can I ask you to look at Exhibit 11?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. So you said this is the current web site of
5 C I Host?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And is this the web site for C I Host, Inc.?

8 A. Yes. It is wwwcihost.com.

9 Q. So that's the Texas C I Host, Inc. corporation
10 and not C I Host Corporation out of California?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And then how long has C I Host, Inc. been 13 operating this web site?

14 A. '94, '95.

15 Q. So what happens when you click on Learn More
16 under Dedicated Servers, does that take you to a
17 C I Host web page?

18 A. It takes you to a web page that gives you more
19 information concerning the servers.

20 Q. So is that operated -- that's operated by 21 another company, not C I Host, right?

22 A. It might be operated by one of my contractors.
23 But we control it. And I maintain it the same way as 24 whenever I want changes to the web site I contact one of 25 my contractors, they make the changes to the web site

1 that I send them --

2 Q. So --

3 A. -- and then it is updated.

4 Q. So what is it -- it says our dedicated server
5 offerings, what is it -- is that a service that C I Host
6 provides?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And so what is -- can you explain what that --

9 A. A dedicated --

10 Q. -- business is, please?

11 A. Yes. A dedicated server is when the customer
12 doesn't own the server but he owns the data in the 13 server. But he doesn't want to share his server with 14 anyone else. It means that we assign him, okay, this 15 server right here is yours. They load the data or 16 they -- most of the time they employ us to load the 17 software and put their data on it.

18 Then once it is loaded in they -- all the 19 passwords and access is provided to that customer. And 20 then that customer remotely accesses the server and 21 controls it.

22 Q. So are the servers owned by C I Host, Inc.?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what is co -- I don't even know how to say
25 the word, colocation?

1 A. Colocation. Colocation is where the customer
2 owns the equipment, e-mails, the data inside it. Owns
3 it 100 percent. They're just hooking up and utilizing
4 our bandwidth. So they're renting space in the data
5 center on a rack or a cabinet. And then they're
6 connecting to our bandwidth and then transmitting
7 through our systems.

8 Q. And so is there a certain amount of bandwidth
9 that C I Host owns that it --

10 A. It varies.

11 Q. -- it allows their customers to utilize?

12 A. It varies on a month-to-month basis.

13 Q. So if you -- if you have a company that comes
14 in and wants to buy a certain level of bandwidth, you
15 can acquire more bandwidth and offer that to them?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And are you currently doing any business -- is 18 C I Host, Inc. currently doing any colocation of 19 business?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And what is managed services?

22 A. Managed services is more like when we -- they 23 have -- we have the equipment and everything but they 24 want to take it strictly a hands-off. It's like a
25 dedicated server only they're saying instead of us

1 remote accessing it, we want you to access it. And when
2 something goes wrong we want you to be able to repair it
3 and flip the switch and we just pay you for it.

4 And they run more of -- we're more of an
5 independent contractor to them, meaning they tell us,
6 okay, this is what software I want on there, this is 7 what I want you to do. And they pay for that and they 8 get an invoice every month.

9 Q. So are you current -- is C I Host, Inc.
10 currently doing business as -- in managed services?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And then is C I Host, Inc. also currently doing
13 business using dedicated servers?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And is this business that C I Host, Inc. has 16 been doing, has that been since August of 2008?

17 A. I don't know exactly the volume of business but 18 they -- this is a type of business that they have been 19 doing since 1995. And -- but it changes with the time.

20 It's like managed services wasn't back in 21 the '90s, it was more -- came up in the late 2000s.
22 Dedicated servers started coming in around 2000, 2001.
23 Before that was shared servers. Colocations, about that
24 same time period.

25 Q. Could you look at Exhibit 6 for me, please?

1 A. All right.

2 Q. I think you said this is the GoDaddy domain
3 printout for CIHost.com; is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And so does GoDaddy -- are they the owner of 6 CIHost.com and then you purchase it from them or are 7 they just like a --

8 A. No.

9 Q. How does that work?

10 A. That -- okay. That is what Exhibit 12,
11 C I Host used to register domain names.

12 Q. Uh-huh.

13 A. You own -- I own the domain name.

14 Q. Uh-huh.

15 A. But I just have to have a third party go in and 16 register it with ICANN.

17 Q. Uh-huh.

18 A. There's your difference.

19 Q. So, and GoDaddy --

20 A. And --

21 Q. -- is the third party?

22 A. At this moment in time.

23 Q. Okay. And then so since when has GoDaddy been 24 the third party?

25 A. I'm not for sure exactly when it switched over.

1 Q. Who did it switch from?

2 A. CIHost.com.

3 Q. Okay. So back when you-all were doing
4 business?

5 A. Right. When we were registering domain names.
6 We registered all of ours.

7 Q. So on the second page it shows, it says domain
8 name CIHost.com and the registrar is C I Host, Inc.?

9 A. Uh-huh.

10 Q. So is C I Host, Inc. the registrar, as it says
11 here?

12 A. No, they're not the current registrar. I am.

13 Q. So was C I Host, Inc. the original registrar?

14 A. (Descriptive sound.)

15 Q. Or I'm just curious why they're listed also, on 16 the second page as registrar?

17 A. Because it -- C I Host, Inc. used to register
18 the names CIHost.com on behalf of -- instead of using 19 GoDaddy. C I Host dot -- C I Host, Inc., when they 20 stopped doing business with domain names then we 21 switched over to having GoDaddy register it.

22 That just -- that just gives you who that
23 last registrar is or it was registered through C I Host,
24 Inc. That's what that information provides you.

25 Q. Could you grab Exhibit 9, please?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And I think this is an Assumed Name
3 Certificate?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And this is dated -- let's see, it looks like
6 2000 maybe; is that correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And then this is -- it says name under which 9 business or professional services is or will be 10 conducted, C I Host?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And then it says the name of incorporated
13 business or profession is C I Host, Inc.?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. So this -- this Assumed Name Certificate, I
16 believe was filed on behalf of C I Host, Inc.; is that 17 right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. Did -- did you individually file an 20 Assumed Name Certificate as C I Host?

21 A. Previous to this time, yes.

22 Q. Previous to this document?

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. And that was just on behalf of Carole Faulkner?

25 A. Carole or Chris Faulkner.

1 Q. Or Chris?

2 A. I would have filed it and signed for it.

3 Q. But other than on behalf of C I Host, Inc.?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. The entity?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. Okay. Could you take a look at Exhibit 7,
8 please?

9 A. (Witness complies.)

10 Q. Is Exhibit 7 what you said were advertising?

11 A. This --

12 Q. Or are these just web page --

13 A. They're different advertising that talks about 14 C I Host on some of the things that we have sponsored,
15 where we're going to be at, and this is all off of the 16 C I Host web site.

17 Q. So this is all available on the C I Host web
18 site now?

19 A. That's probably not now. This was taken from 20 our files and this was during that time period.

21 Q. Okay. So some of this is historical --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- print-offs from the C I Host web site?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now all of this stuff off the C I Host web site

1 that's in Exhibit 7, is this C I Host, Inc.'s
2 advertising?

3 A. It would be C I Host, Inc. and some probably 4 C I Host Corporation.

5 Q. C I Host Corporation, the California entity?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Would any of this be C I Host Corporation, the
8 Texas entity?

9 A. Oh, yes. Most of it is, C I Host, Inc., the 10 Texas corporation.

11 Q. So C I Host, Inc. --

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. -- the Texas Corporation?

14 A. Right. But that's all looking at --

15 Q. But C I Host, Inc. as opposed to C I Host
16 Corporation?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. So like the first page, is this C I Host, Inc.
19 or C I Host --

20 A. Most of this is. This is all C I Host, Inc.
21 Yeah. This is from C I Host, Inc.

22 Q. So was it for any --

23 A. Some of this. Some of this is from C I Host
24 Corporation.

25 Q. But can you -- can you just point out for me,

1 just for the record, which ones are from C I Host
2 Corporation?

3 A. I know the back page, 2010, looks like it is
4 C I Host Corporation, a lot of it is C I Host Corp --
5 Inc.

6 Q. So the back page --

7 A. C I --

8 Q. -- which says --

9 A. It looks more like the C I Host Corporation.

10 Q. Okay. But the rest of it, other than the back
11 page?

12 A. Appears to be C I Host, Inc.

13 Q. And so the back page, it looks a lot like the 14 current C I Host web site?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So does C I Host Corporation also utilize the 17 same web site?

18 A. CIHost.com, yes.

19 Q. So C I Host Corporation, the California entity
20 uses that --

21 A. Because I'm not doing business under the 22 C I Host Corporation in California. I'm still -- I'm 23 utilizing mostly the C I Host, Inc, corporation.

24 Q. So the back page, which says C I Host and it's 25 from the web site?

1 A. Yes. For -- in 2010.

2 Q. In 2010. So this --

3 A. But that isn't the current web site.

4 Q. Is this C I Host Corporation the California
5 entity or is this C I Host, Inc. the Texas entity?

6 A. This would be C I Host, Inc.

7 Q. Okay. So is there any of the documents on 8 Exhibit 7 that are any entity other than C I Host, Inc.?

9 A. I don't think so.

10 Q. And are there any of the documents in Exhibit 7
11 that are your individual business D/B/A C I Host?

12 A. No, because I'm operating now C I Host, Inc., 13 still going through that.

14 Q. So are you currently doing any business
15 operations other than through C I Host, Inc. or C I Host
16 Corporation?

17 A. No. I mean, I operate wwwcihost.com. It is 18 owned in my individual name. But I utilize it through 19 the company.

20 Q. I'll ask you to look at Exhibit 8. And this
21 is, I believe, also advertising?

22 A. Well, no, the press releases.

23 Q. Press releases. Okay.

24 A. These are articles that appeared in the paper.

25 Q. So the first one is an October 9, 2006 article,

1 two pages; is that right? Or press release, I should
2 say.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then the second one is a March 13, 2007
5 press release; is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And the third one is a November 11, 2008 press
8 release?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And then the fourth one is January 23, 2000?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. The fifth one is March 21, 2002?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. I guess the sixth one, it looks like
15 November 18, 2002?

16 A. All right.

17 Q. And then the sixth one, October 19 -- I don't
18 think -- I don't see a year on here.

19 A. All right.

20 Q. Do you know what -- what the -- approximately
21 the date of the last, it is called Human Billboard
22 Recruits, 800 New Clients for C I Host. Do you know the 23 date of that one?

24 A. No, I don't.

25 Q. It looks like there are quite a few links in

1 there from 2003 and 2004. Do you think it would be
2 around that time, 2004?

3 A. No, it was after that. I just don't know what
4 date. I don't recall the specific date.

5 Q. Would it have been for 2008?

6 A. I don't know.

7 Q. So are there any of the --

8 A. I don't think so.

9 Q. -- press releases in Exhibit 8 that have been
10 since August of 2008?

11 A. I don't know. I just grabbed some out of the 12 files. I didn't look at the dates.

13 Q. But of the ones --

14 A. You just said the -- you just gave me the 15 dates.

16 Q. Right. Of the ones that are in Exhibit 8, are 17 any of these since August of 2008?

18 A. I will have to go back through them and ask to 19 see them. So no. November 2008, October 19, I believe
20 that's after 2008. These are just excerpts
21 from -- there are mixed years.

22 Q. Where is C I Host, Inc.'s current address?

23 A. The offices are at 4010 Ambleside Court.

24 THE REPORTER: Amble -- say it again,
25 4010 --

7 to you their interest in, among other things, the right
8 and title to the trademark C I Host?

9 A. No.

If paragraph 7.02 is satisfied, no contract, act, or transaction between this corporation and any of its directors, officers or shareholders, or any firm, trust, or association in which any of them are directly or indirectly interested, shall be affected or invalidated solely because of this relationship or because of the presence of a directors, officer, or shareholder at the meeting authorizing the contract or transaction, or his participation, or both, in the meeting or authorization, except as may be otherwise provided in Article 2.41 of the Texas Business Corporation Act. No duty to pay damages to this corporation shall be imposed upon any directors, officer, or shareholder of this corporation solely by reason of such fact or facts, regardless of the vote, action, or presence of any such director.

 - (a) to the Board of directors, and the board authorizes or ratifies the contract, act, or transaction by a vote of the majority of the directors present (each interested director shall be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but not counted in determining the majority necessary to carry the vote); or
 - (b) to the shareholders, and they authorize or ratify the contract, act, or transaction by a majority of the disinterested shares present (each such interested person shall be counted for quorum and voting purposes); or
- (2) the contract, act, or transaction is fair to the corporation as of the time it is authorized or ratified by the Board of directors or the shareholders.

7.03 Nonexclusive. This provision shall not be construed to invalidate a contract, act, or transaction which would be valid in the absence of this provision.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNIFICATION

8.01 Persons Covered. The corporation shall indemnify, to the extent provided in paragraphs 8.02, 8.04, or 8.06:

- (1) any person who is or was a director, officer, agent, or employee of the corporation; and
- (2) any person who serves or served at the corporation's request as a director, officer, agent, employee, partner, venturer, proprietor, or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

8.02 Extent of Coverage - Derivative Suits. In case of a suit by or in the right of the corporation against a person named in paragraph 8.01 by reason of his holding a position named in paragraph 8.01 the corporation shall indemnify such person, if he satisfies the standard in paragraph 8.03, for expenses (including court costs and attorneys' fees, but excluding amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the suit.

8.03 Requirements for Coverage - Derivative Suits. In case of a suit by or in the right of the corporation, a person named in paragraph 8.01 shall be indemnified only if:

- (1) he is successful on the merits or otherwise; or
- (2) he acted in good faith in the transaction which is the subject of the suit, and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, (or not opposed to, but only in cases in which he was not acting in his official capacity as director of the corporation) the best interests of the corporation. However, he shall not be indemnified in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which he has been adjudged (1) liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him, whether or not the benefit resulted from action taken in his official capacity, or (2) liable to the corporation, unless (and only to the extent that) the court in which the suit was brought shall determine, upon application, that, despite the adjudication but in view of all the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

8.04: Extent of Coverage - Nonderivative Suits. In case of a suit, action, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative) other than a suit by or in the right of the corporation, collectively hereafter referred to as a nonderivative suit, against a person named in paragraph 8.01, by reason of his holding a position named in paragraph 8.01, the corporation shall indemnify such person, if he satisfied the standard in paragraph 8.05, for amounts actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the nonderivative suit as:

- (1) expenses (including court costs and attorneys' fees);
- (2) amounts paid in settlement;
- (3) judgments;
- (4) fines; and
- (5) penalties.

8.05 Requirements for Coverage - Nonderivative Suits. In case of a nonderivative suit, a person named in paragraph 8.01 shall be indemnified only if:

- (1) he is successful on the merits or otherwise; or
- (2) he acted in good faith in the transaction which is the subject of the nonderivative suit, and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, (or not opposed to, but only in cases in which he was not acting in his official capacity as director of the corporation) the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of nonderivative suit by judgment order, settlement conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person failed to satisfy the standard of this paragraph 8.05(2).

8.06 Determination Standard Met. A determination that the standard of paragraph 8.03 or 8.05 has been satisfied may be made by a court. Or, except as stated in paragraph 8.03(2), the determination may be made:

- (1) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the action, suit or proceeding;
- (2) if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of directors, designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all directors, consisting solely of two or more directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the action, suit, or proceeding;

- (3) by special legal counsel selected by the Board of directors or a committee of the board by vote as set forth in (1) or (2) of this paragraph, or, if such a quorum cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be established, such selection may be made by a majority vote of all directors; or
- (4) by the shareholders in a vote that excludes the shares held by directors who are named defendants or respondents in the action, suit, or proceeding.

8.07 Proration. Anyone making a determination under paragraph 8.06 may determine that a person has met the standard as to some matters but not as to others, and may reasonably prorate amounts to be indemnified.

8.08 Advances. The corporation may pay in advance any expenses (including attorneys' fees) which may become subject to indemnification under paragraph 8.01-07 if:

- (1) the corporation receives (1) a written affirmation by the director of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under paragraph 8.03 or 8.05 and (2) a written undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he has not met those requirements; and
- (2) a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under paragraphs 8.01-8.07.

8.09 Nonexclusive. The indemnification provided by paragraph 8.01-8.07 shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled by law, bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

8.10 Continuation. The indemnification and advance payment provided by paragraph 8.01-8.08 shall continue as to a person who has ceased to hold a position named in paragraph 8.01 and shall inure to his heirs, executors, and administrators.

8.11 Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who holds or who has held any position named in paragraph 8.01 against any liability incurred by him in any such position, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify him against such liability under paragraphs 8.01-

8.12 Reports. Indemnification payments, advance payments, and insurance payments made under paragraphs 8.01-8.11 shall be reported in writing to the shareholders of the corporation with the next notice of annual meeting or within six (6) month, whichever is sooner.

ARTICLE IX

- (3) a transaction from which a director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office;
- (4) an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressly provided for by statute, or
- (5) an act related to an unlawful stock repurchase or payment of a dividend.

- (1) The material facts of the relationship of interest of each director is known or disclosed:
 - (a) to the Board of directors, and the board authorizes or ratifies the contract, act, or transaction by a vote of the majority of the directors present (each interested director shall be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but not counted in determining the majority necessary to carry the vote); or
 - (b) to the shareholders, and they authorize or ratify the contract, act, or transaction by a majority of the disinterested shares present (each such interested person shall be counted for quorum and voting purposes); or
- (2) the contract, act, or transaction is fair to the corporation as of the time it is authorized or ratified by the Board of directors or the shareholders.

7.03 Nonexclusive. This provision shall not be construed to invalidate a contract, act, or transaction which would be valid in the absence of this provision.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNIFICATION

8.01 Persons Covered. The corporation shall indemnify, to the extent provided in paragraphs 8.02, 8.04, or 8.06:

- (1) any person who is or was a director, officer, agent, or employee of the corporation; and
- (2) any person who serves or served at the corporation's request as a director, officer, agent, employee, partner, venturer, proprietor, or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

8.02 Extent of Coverage - Derivative Suits. In case of a suit by or in the right of the corporation against a person named in paragraph 8.01 by reason of his holding a position named in paragraph 8.01 the corporation shall indemnify such person, if he satisfies the standard in paragraph 8.03, for expenses (including court costs and attorneys' fees, but excluding amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the suit.

8.03 Requirements for Coverage - Derivative Suits. In case of a suit by or in the right of the corporation, a person named in paragraph 8.01 shall be indemnified only if:

- (1) he is successful on the merits or otherwise; or
- (2) he acted in good faith in the transaction which is the subject of the suit, and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, (or not opposed to, but only in cases in which he was not acting in his official capacity as director of the corporation) the best interests of the corporation. However, he shall not be indemnified in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which he has been adjudged (1) liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him, whether or not the benefit resulted from action taken in his official capacity, or (2) liable to the corporation, unless (and only to the extent that) the court in which the suit was brought shall determine, upon application, that, despite the adjudication but in view of all the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

8.04 Extent of Coverage - Nonderivative Suits. In case of a suit, action, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative) other than a suit by or in the right of the corporation, collectively hereafter referred to as a nonderivative suit, against a person named in paragraph 8.01, by reason of his holding a position named in paragraph 8.01, the corporation shall indemnify such person, if he satisfied the standard in paragraph 8.05, for amounts actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the nonderivative suit as:

- (1) expenses (including court costs and attorneys' fees);
- (2) amounts paid in settlement;
- (3) judgments;
- (4) fines; and
- (5) penalties.

8.05 Requirements for Coverage - Nonderivative Suits. In case of a nonderivative suit, a person named in paragraph 8.01 shall be indemnified only if:

- (1) he is successful on the merits or otherwise; or
- (2) he acted in good faith in the transaction which is the subject of the nonderivative suit, and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, (or not opposed to, but only in cases in which he was not acting in his official capacity as director of the corporation) the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of nonderivative suit by judgment order, settlement conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person failed to satisfy the standard of this paragraph

8.06 Determination Standard Met. A determination that the standard of paragraph 8.03 or 8.05 has been satisfied may be made by a court. Or, except as stated in paragraph 8.03(2), the determination may be made:

- (1) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the action, suit or proceeding;
- (2) if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of directors, designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all directors, consisting solely of two or more directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the action, suit, or proceeding;
- (3) by special legal counsel selected by the Board of directors or a committee of the board by vote as set forth in (1) or (2) of this paragraph, or, if such a quorum cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be established, such selection may be made by a majority vote of all directors; or
- (4) by the shareholders in a vote that excludes the shares held by directors who are named defendants or respondents in the action, suit, or proceeding.

8.07 Proration. Anyone making a determination under paragraph 8.06 may determine that a person has met the standard as to some matters but not as to others, and may reasonably prorate amounts to be indemnified.

8.08 Advances. The corporation may pay in advance any expenses (including attorneys' fees) which may become subject to indemnification under paragraph 8.01-07 if:

- (1) the corporation receives (1) a written affirmation by the director of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under paragraph 8.03 or 8.05 and (2) a written undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he has not met those requirements; and
- (2) a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under paragraphs 8.01-8.07.

8.09 Nonexclusive. The indemnification provided by paragraph 8.01-8.07 shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled by law, bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

8.10 Continuation. The indemnification and advance payment provided by paragraph 8.01-8.08 shall continue as to a person who has ceased to hold a position named in paragraph

8.01 and shall inure to his heirs, executors, and administrators.

8.11 Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who holds or who has held any position named in paragraph 8.01 against any liability incurred by him in any such position, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify him against such liability under paragraphs 8.01-808.

8.12 Reports. Indemnification payments, advance payments, and insurance payments made under paragraphs 8.01-8.11 shall be reported in writing to the shareholders of the corporation with the next notice of annual meeting or within six (6) month, whichever is sooner.

LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

If a Board of Directors is established, a director of the corporation will not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director except that this article does not eliminate nor limit the liability of director for;

- (1) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders;
- (2) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
- (3) a transaction from which a director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office;
- (4) an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressly provided for by statute, or
- (5) an act related to an unlawful stock repurchase or payment of a dividend.

ARTICLE X

C I Host Named Number One Web Hosting Company in Dallas Business Journal's Annual "Book Of Lists"

FORT WORTH (March 13, 2007)

FORT WORTH (March 13, 2007) - C I Host, a global leader in Web hosting and software development, has been named the number one Web hosting company in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex by the Dallas Business Journal in its annual "Book of Lists."

"We are pleased and honored to be chosen by the Journal as the top Web hosting company," said Christopher Faulkner, CEO of C I Host. "The Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex is one of the top business markets in the country and it is fertile soil, allowing us to grow worldwide."

The Dallas Business Journal determines which companies win a coveted spot on its list by reviewing revenue and overall industry growth.

A combination of business acumen, putting the customer first and a solid financial foundation has enabled C I Host to grow consistently throughout the ups and downs of the economic cycle over the past nine years.

"We've grown, expanded and stayed ahead of the curve in the industry," Faulkner said. "We consistently put our customers at the center of our company and make sure that giving them the tools to succeed is guiding our decisions."

Over the past year, C I Host has expanded its core data center in Bedford for the fourth time and formed a strategic partnership with Iomega Corporation, a global leader in data protection and developer of OfficeScreen managed services, and developed an anti-scam toolbar and other strategies to protect Internet users from Internet crime.

As part of its expanding services, C I Host pioneered the use of web-based technology to expand the market for musicians and artists to sell their products and services and to help nonprofit organizations linked with the arts to raise funds to help those hurt by national disasters.

"This is an exciting time to be part of the information technology and eCommerce industry," Faulkner said. "We are working consistently to keep the Internet healthy, secure and accessible."

C I Host Invests for Growth, Expands Operations with New Texas Datacenter Facility

FORT WORTH (November 11, 2008)

Company implements 11 years of best practices and better technology for customers

Today, C I Host announced a new datacenter facility scheduled to open in 2009 in Dallas, Texas. The new facility maximizes best practices from the company's 11 years in business, along with providing improved technology to customers. The company continues to offer industry-leading services for the same low prices. The new datacenter facilities expand the company's capabilities while consolidating operations to more efficiently serve customers worldwide.

The new datacenter facilities represent a transformation for the company, as the datacenter is built out for maximum performance, efficiency and availability for the customer - all before customers are ever moved in.

"C I Host is a pioneer in the Web hosting industry and we have the opportunity to use more than a decade of experiences to build a customer's ideal datacenter from the ground up - and then deliver it to them," said Erin Bullock, Executive Director of Business Development for C I Host ;

The new facilities, which will open in February 2009, boast 60,000 square feet of space with diverse electrical feeds and fiber entrances, while a 1.5-megawatt power transformer and 750-kilowatt transformer will ably handle electrical loads. On-site fuel storage and a generator with Automatic Transfer Switches will help ensure consistent power availability.

Nicholas Giancola, Chief Network Architect at C I Host adds: "We're using the new facilities as a blank slate opportunity to provide the kind of technology and service our customers demand."

The new buildings are located in the Dallas Love Field Corridor, 6 miles from downtown Dallas, 2.5 miles from Love Field Airport, and 10 miles from DFW International Airport.

New customers will be added to the new facility in early 2009, while current C I Host customers will be migrated during the following six to twelve months.

CI Host struggling back after server crash

Kerry Curry
Staff Writer

BEDFORD -- When CI Host's name server went down and dumped its 48,000 customers off the Internet, the company experienced a "very catastrophic event" but not a business-ending one, an information-technology analyst says.

Even so, "this can have a significant impact on a hoster's reputation," said Audrey Apfel, vice president and research director at the Gartner Group in Stamford, Conn.

CI Host, a Web-hosting company in Bedford, said its primary name server experienced data corruption that rendered it useless on Dec. 29. Though the company said its name server was restored by Jan. 1, it took time to get customers' sites operating again. Some customers said their sites were down for more than a week, and customers were still reporting problems with their sites working properly this week.

Such problems aren't unheard of in the hosting industry, although Apfel said CI Host's problems were "worse than most."

The incident spells an opportunity for competitors to go after CI Host's customers, she said. "CI Host has hundreds of competitors. None of these guys are big enough to make a foray, but there will be plenty of nibbling at the edges."

Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.-based ValueWeb, which hosts 50,000 Web sites, is one of the companies doing some nibbling.

"It is unfortunate that our competitors have problems, but when they do, we do try to capitalize on that," said Jeffrey D. Rubenstein, president and chief operating officer at ValueWeb. Rubenstein said ValueWeb had gained some former CI Host customers, but declined to say how many.

Apfel said CI Host is most at risk for losing its top-tier customers -- those who use their Internet sites for e-commerce and expected a stable environment. Others who have more passive sites likely will be satisfied with the steps CI Host has taken to remedy the situation.

Barely three months into 2002, C I Host has already racked up impressive awards for speed, reliability and customer service

New C I Host awards continue a tradition of being a leader in web hosting and Internet solutions; C I Host also rewards customers with incentives

C I Host has been honored as one of HostPulse.com's 100 Most Dynamic Web Hosting Companies and has received a Top 10 Host Award from WebHostsOnline.com in recognition of its superior service, speed and introduction of cutting edge technology.

"We are certainly pleased with these awards," said Christopher Faulkner, founder and CEO of C I Host.

"Putting our customers first and doing our part to keep the Internet healthy and accessible for all our global citizens is central to our mission."

In explaining how it chose the hundred most dynamic web hosting companies, HostPulse.com said: "Web users want a hosting partner rather than a vendor. Our 100 Most Dynamic Web Hosting Companies listing recognizes companies in the web hosting industry that demonstrate three characteristics -- responsiveness to market demand, marketing expertise, and building successful customer relationships."

In addition, C I Host was ranked in the top 20 web hosts tested by targetblaster.com for having 99.45 percent uptime, one of the highest ratios in the industry.

"We aren't surprised by our high ranking," Faulkner said. "We have invested significant amounts of money and resources in the past year to make our network one of the most robust and reliable in the world."

C I Host, founded to be a customer-centric operation, has been at the forefront in passing its good fortune on to its customers. Long after other companies stopped trying to copy its two-for-one server offer, C I Host was still reaping the benefits of its "share the wealth" marketing philosophy.

"Other companies copied it but couldn't reproduce the profits and stopped," Faulkner said. "Because of our relationships with more than 25 of the world's largest computer parts vendors, we can buy the best hardware for the lowest prices and pass that savings on to our customers through the two for one server offer. We sold more than 900 paid servers through this offer over the past 12 months."

C I Host's success is due in large part to its marketing savvy and its sound financial footing.

A combination of forces and business decisions has given C I Host the solid foundation that has enabled it not only to withstand, but to thrive in the unsettled economic climate that has forced other firms to cut back, withdraw and sometimes fold their tents.

C I Host has data centers in Texas, Chicago and Los Angeles, will open its first European center in London in April, and has more planned to open in Germany, India and Japan within the year.

"We are growing even faster than we were a year ago," said Faulkner, who turned 25 in December amidst one of C I Host's best months. "Our finances are as sound and secure as our robust network. The future is bright."

CI Host opens store in the Galleria

CI Host, a Bedford-based Web hosting company, has opened its first retail store at the Galleria mall.

CI Host said it believes it is the first company to sell Web hosting and Internet infrastructure services in a bricks-and-mortar store.

"Selling Web hosting services in a retail setting is a new concept," said Christopher Faulkner, CEO of CI Host. "This gives us the ability to meet our customers face-to-face."

CI Host's Technology Store will sell services aimed at small and medium-sized companies, as well as those geared for larger companies. Services will include shared hosting, in which the data from several clients' Web sites are housed on the same server, and dedicated, managed hosting, which gives a large company its own server and technical support staff.

Customers can walk in, buy a Web hosting account, have it set up in the store, and leave the store with all logins necessary to start uploading content when they get home, the company said. They also can order a dedicated server and have it set up and on CI Host's network and their logins e-mailed to them the same day.

CI Host's store also will sell its boxed products, e-Business in a Box and e-Memories on the Web.

The company plans to open future stores in Chicago, Los Angeles and Baltimore, where CI Host has facilities and strong markets, and eventually in malls all over the country.

'Human Billboard' Recruits 800 New Clients for C I Host

DALLAS, Oct. 19 /PRNewswire/ -- C I Host, a global leader in Web hosting and software development, today announced its walking, breathing "Human Billboard" captured 800 new accounts since the promotion began in March of 2003. After signing a contract with C I Host, Jim Nelson had the company's logo tattooed on the back of his head.

"The campaign brought C I Host's message to the masses," said Christopher Faulkner, CEO of C I Host. "The 'Human Billboard' is responsible for bringing us hundreds of new clients -- a success by any means."

The 800th customer, Marion Rice of Omaha, Neb., saw the tattoo and instantly questioned Nelson.

"The 'Human Billboard' caught my eye and when I stopped him, he told me about C I Host," Rice said. "He was a big factor in my decision to go with C I Host."

The unique advertising idea has been featured in the press worldwide. Nelson agreed to the unusual use of his head to raise money for a dot.com business.

The five-year contract requires the "Human Billboard" to keep the tattoo visible at all times and make daily treks promoting C I Host, which includes trips throughout the continental U.S.

Faulkner knew the program would be successful shortly after it began -- 23 new accounts were generated directly from the tattooing event and C I Host Web traffic increased 12 percent just within the first two months of the campaign.
